DEPARTMENT OF LABOUR.

PROVINCE OF BRITISH COLUMBIA.

"MALE MINIMUM WAGE ACT."

ORDER No. 69.

Order establishing a Minimum Wage in the Occupation of Patrolman.

THE Board of Industrial Relations hereby orders:—

1. That where used in this Order:—

"Private patrol agency" means every person who by contract or agreement undertakes to watch or patrol the premises of more than one person for the purpose of guarding or protecting persons or property against robbery, theft, burglary, or other hazards:

"Patrolman" means an employee (not covered by any other Order of the Board) employed by a private patrol agency.

2. That the minimum wage for every patrolman shall be thirty-five cents (35c.) per hour.

3. That every private patrol agency shall, at least as often as semi-monthly, pay to every patrolman in his employment all wages and salary due to him, up to a day not more than seven (7) days prior to the date of payment.

4. That every patrolman shall be given a rest period of twenty-four (24) consecutive hours free from duty in every seven (7) days, of which he shall be duly notified by his employer.

5. That, subject to the provisions of section 6 of this Order, when a patrolman is required by his employer to wear a uniform or special article of wearing-apparel, such uniform or special article of wearing-apparel shall be furnished free of cost to the patrolman by the employer, and no deductions from the wages of the patrolman shall be made by the employer for such uniform or special article of wearing-apparel.

6. That in any case where employers and employees governed by this Order make application in writing that a different arrangement respecting the cost of uniforms be approved by the Board, the Board may approve of such arrangement, and thereupon the arrangement so approved shall be applicable to the said employers and employees in lieu of section 5 of this Order.

7. That this Order shall become effective on the 5th day of February, 1940.

Dated at Victoria, B.C., this 19th day of January, 1940.

(f.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire letters patent and similar privileges and concessions, both Canadian and foreign, for inventions or improvements in any invention which may be considered conducive to the attainment of any of the objects of the Company, or in any way connected therewith, or any interest in any such invention or patent, and any licence or licences in connection therewith, and to finance inventors or alleged inventors for the purpose of enabling them to test or perfect their inventions, and to sell or dispose of any such patent rights or privileges, and to grant licences for the use of the same, or otherwise deal with and turn to account such patents and privileges as may be deemed expedient in the interests of the Company:

(g.) To carry on in the Province of British Columbia the business of a power company, or any business within the meaning of the "Water Act," and any amendments thereof, of the Legislative Assembly of British Columbia; to acquire any necessary licences therefor, and to pay all such fees and charges, and to execute all such documents, and do all such things as may be required therefor, and to take, have, and enjoy the full benefit of the said "Water Act" and any amendments thereof:

(h.) To carry on any business incidental to the full and complete use and enjoyment of the properties and works of the Company, or the manufacture and products thereof, and such other business as may be deemed expedient and conducive to the interests of the Company:

(i.) To seek for and acquire openings for the employment of capital in the Dominion of Canada and elsewhere, and with a view thereto to prospect, inquire, examine, explore, and test, and to dispatch and employ expeditions, commissioners, experts, and other agents:

(j.) To acquire by original grant, purchase, or otherwise howsoever, any Acts of Parliament, orders, grants, rights, privileges, and concessions, and to enter into contracts or arrangements with any municipal or other body, corporation, company, or person for the grant of any rights, privileges, or concessions:

(k.) To sell, lease, convert into money, exchange, barter, grant easements, licences, or other rights over, or in any other way realize or dispose of the undertaking, property, assets, and effects of the Company, or any part thereof, for such consideration as may be thought fit, and in particular for shares, stock, or securities of any other company, either fully or partly paid up, and to acquire, hold, and deal with any such shares, stocks, or securities, and to accept payment for any property so sold by instalments:

(l.) To draw, accept, endorse, and negotiate bills of exchange, promissory notes, and other negotiable instruments:

(m.) To purchase or otherwise acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business (whether manufacturing or otherwise), property, rights, and liabilities of any company or person carrying on or authorized or intending to carry on any business which the Company is authorized to carry on, or owning or being entitled to any property which it is considered desirable for this Company to acquire or to acquire an interest in, and to acquire, hold, and deal with the shares, stocks, or securities of any such company:

(n.) To acquire and hold shares, stock, debentures, debenture stock, bonds, obligations, and securities issued or guaranteed by any company constituted or carrying on business in Canada or in the United States of America, and debentures, debenture stock, bonds, obligations, and securities issued or guaranteed by any Government, public body, or authority (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise), and to acquire any such shares, stocks, debentures, debenture stock, bonds, obligations, or securities by option, original subscription, tender, purchase, exchange, or otherwise, and to subscribe for the same, either conditionally or otherwise, and to guarantee the subscription thereof, and to exercise and enforce all rights and powers conferred by or incident to the ownership thereof:

(o.) To borrow or raise money for any purpose of the Company, and for the purpose of securing or discharging any such money or any other debt, or any contract of indemnity or other obligation or liability of or binding upon the Company, to mortgage and charge the undertaking and all or any of the real and personal property and assets of the Company, present or future, and all or any of the uncalled capital for the time being of the Company, and to create and issue at par, or at a premium or discount, debentures, mortgage debentures, debenture stock, and other securities payable to bearer or otherwise, and either permanent or redeemable or repayable, and to secure any obligation or securities of the Company by means of covering, or trust deeds or otherwise, and to confer upon any encumbrancer such powers of making and enforcing calls and of exchanging any debentures or debenture stock for shares in the capital of the Company and otherwise as may be thought fit:

(p.) To lend money to and guarantee the performance of the contracts and obligations of and the payment of the principal of or the dividends or interest on any stock, shares, debentures, or securities of any company or person having dealings with the Company, in any case in which such loan or guarantee may appear likely, directly or indirectly, to further the objects of this Company or the interests of its shareholders:

(q.) To establish and support or aid in the establishment and support of associations, institutions, funds, trusts, and conveniences calculated to benefit any of the employees or ex-employees of the Company, or any of the dependents or connections of any such persons, and to grant to any such persons, dependents, or connections pensions and allowances, and to make payments towards insurance thereof respectively, and generally to subscribe or guarantee money to or for charitable or benevolent objects, or to or for any exhibition, or to or for any public, general, or useful object, and to make gifts or donations to any person, firm, or corporation for any purpose whatsoever:

(r.) To carry on in any part of the world any business which the Company may desire to carry on, and any business incidental to the full and complete use and enjoyment of the properties of the Company, and such other business as may be deemed expedient and conducive to the interests of the Company.

The word "company" in this memorandum, when applied otherwise than to this Company, shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, whether corporate or unincorporate, and whether domiciled in British Columbia or elsewhere, and the objects specified in each of the paragraphs hereto shall be regarded as independent objects, and accordingly shall be in nowise limited or restricted (except when otherwise expressed in such paragraph by reference to the objects indicated in any other paragraph or the name of the Company), but may be carried out in as full and ample a manner and construed in as wide a sense as if each of the said paragraphs defined the objects of a separate, distinct, and independent company.

The objects for which the Company is established are:—

(a.) To purchase, take on lease or in exchange, or otherwise acquire any lands and buildings, and any estate, or interest in, and any rights in connection with any such lands and buildings; to develop and turn to account any land acquired by or in which the Company is interested, and in particular by laying out and preparing the same for building purposes, constructing, altering, pulling down, decorating, maintaining, furnishing, fitting up, and improving buildings, and by planting, paving, building agreement, and by advancing money to and entering into contracts and arrangements of all kinds with builders, tenants, and others; to construct, maintain, improve, develop, work, control, and manage any water-works, gasworks, reservoirs, roads, electric power, heat and light supply works, telephone-works, hotels, restaurants, baths, places of worship, places of amusement, pleasure-grounds, parks, gardens, reading-rooms, stores, shops, dairies, and other works and conveniences which the Company may think directly or indirectly conducive to these objects, and to contribute or otherwise assist or take part in the construction, maintenance, development, working, control, and management thereof; to carry on all or any of the following businesses, namely: Builders and contractors, decorators, merchants, and dealers in stone, sand, lime, bricks, timber, hardware, and other building requisites, brick and tile and terra-cotta makers, jobmasters, carriers, licensed victuallers, and house agents; to lend money, either with or without security, and generally to such persons and upon such terms and conditions as the Company may think fit, and in particular to persons undertaking to build on or improve any property in which the Company is interested, and to tenants, builders, and contractors:

(b.) To purchase for investment or resale, and to traffic in land and house and other property of any tenure and any interest therein, and to create, sell, and deal in freehold and leasehold ground-rents, and to make advances upon the security of land or house or other property, or any interest therein, and generally to deal in, traffic by way of sale, lease, exchange, or otherwise with land and house property and any other property, whether real or personal:

(c.) To acquire by purchase, lease, exchange, or otherwise land, buildings, and hereditaments of any tenure or description, and any estate or interest therein, and any rights over or connected with land so situate, and to turn the same to account as may seem expedient, and in particular by preparing buildings, building-sites, and by constructing, reconstructing, altering, improving, decorating, furnishing, and maintaining offices, flats, houses, factories, warehouses, shops, wharves, buildings, works, and conveniences of all kinds, and by consolidating or connecting or subdividing properties, and by leasing and disposing of the same:

(d.) To manage land, buildings, and other property situate as aforesaid, whether belonging to the Company or not, and to collect rents and income, and to supply to tenants and occupiers and others refreshments, attendance, messengers, light, waiting-rooms, reading-rooms, meeting-rooms, lavatories, laundry conveniences, electric conveniences, stables, and other advantages:

(e.) To purchase or acquire property of any and every kind whatsoever, and to pay for the same by the issuance and delivery to the seller of shares, bonds, debentures, or debenture stock of the Company, and for such purposes to issue shares, debentures, or debenture stock:

(f.) To carry on any business as brokers, financiers, and as agents for guarantors, securities and loan companies, for any other branch of the insurance business (subject to the laws and regulations in force in the Province of British Columbia respecting insurance), and to undertake, carry on, and execute all kinds of financial operations, and to carry on the business of agents or attorneys for any person, firm, or corporations engaged in any branch of financial, industrial, or commercial business upon such terms as to remuneration as may be agreed; provided any such powers do not conflict with the "Bank Act" or the "Trust Companies Act" or the "Insurance Act" of the Province of British Columbia:

(g.) To carry on a general construction business, including the business of architects and engineers in all their branches, subject to the provisions and conditions of the "Architects Act," R.S.B.C. 1936, and amending Acts, and subject to the "Engineering Act," R.S.B.C. 1936, and amending Acts:

(h.) To erect and construct houses, building, or works of every description on any land of the Company or upon any other lands or hereditaments, and to pull down, rebuild, enlarge, alter, and improve existing houses, buildings, or works thereon; to convert and appropriate any such land into and for roads, streets, squares, gardens, and pleasure-grounds, and other conveniences, and generally to deal with and improve the property of the Company:

(i.) To sell, lease, let, mortgage, or otherwise dispose of the lands, houses, buildings, hereditaments as principals or agents.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1.) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2.) Such notice shall be published in The British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3.) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4.) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1.) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

- (a.) A printed copy of such Bill;
- (b.) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House;
- (c.) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2.) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3.) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1.) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2.) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3.) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring $10\frac{3}{4}$ inches by $7\frac{1}{2}$ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to incorporate companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated May 1st, 1930.

W. H. LANGLEY,
Clerk, Legislative Assembly.
